I CAN DESCRIBE THE OVERALL STRUCTURE OF A STORY, INCLUDING HOW THE BEGINNING INTRODUCES A STORY AND THE ENDING CONCLUDES THE STORY.

Your child is learning to tell the structure of a story they have read.

Sample Questions To Ask Your Child:

- When was the setting introduced?
- When was the character introduced?
- When did we learn the character's problem?
- What was the character's problem?
- When did the character solve their problem?
- How did the character solve their problem?
- What information did the author give you at the beginning of the story?

Vocabulary Terms:

- Beginning
- Middle/End
- Action
- Events
- Plot
- Setting
- Character
- Problem/Solution

You can practice this standard with your child using any fiction text. It is important to remember that your child should be able to look back in the text to find answers and should also be able to show you where they found them. Below is an example of a graphic organizer you can have your child do.
